<Notice>

Currently, Japan is restricting the entry of new foreign nationals as a measure against the new coronavirus infection.

It is necessary the permission from the Japanese government to enter Japan, but that application has been suspended for the time being.

Likewise, new visa applications are also suspended, and even those that have been issued may be temporarily invalid.

Due to this situation, the competitors who wish to participate in the events should contact us in advance.

Japan's policies may change in the future, and we will determine whether we can accept entries at that time.

<Others>

These events will be held with measures to prevent the spread of the new coronavirus infection.

Therefore, the various restrictions may be applied to all competitors.

All expenses such as the inspections required by Japanese Government and or related countries, accommodation, and transportation expenses for during the isolation period will be borne by you.

All overseas professional competitors are required the entertainment visa.

Please make sure you understand and accept the above before entering the events.
